ABOUT

Rochester MN Weather is an independent, locally built dashboard for southeast Minnesota and the Zumbro River valley — a sibling to duluthareaweather.com, built to give this region the same free, one-page dashboard, with no ads to click through.

Every reading comes from public sources: the National Weather Service, NOAA, the USGS, AirNow, and USDA crop data.

RIGHT NOW

Conditions & Sky

Current Conditions

Temperature, wind, and sky right now for Rochester, Owatonna, and Austin — the number you actually came to check.

AI Forecast

A plain-English summary written from the NWS forecast and the meteorologist's own discussion.

Sky Now

What's overhead right now — sun, moon, planets, and stars, any time of day. Tap any for its rise or set time.

Air Quality

Real AQI readings and a smoke/haze forecast — not just a model guess.

Snow on the Ground

Current snow depth plus the next three days' snowfall, in winter.

LOCAL TIP

Owatonna and Austin can run several degrees off Rochester — check all three before deciding what to wear.

PLAN YOUR DAY

Before You Head Out

Regional Dashboard

A multi-page dashboard — Local, Regional, Road, and an animated wind map — for whatever you're planning.

Road Conditions

MnDOT road weather for the drive across southeast Minnesota.

Fall Colors

Seasonal leaf-color status across the region, in season.

Fire & Smoke

Active wildfire and smoke tracking when it matters.

Zumbro River Levels

Flow and flood status at South Fork Zumbro and Zumbro Falls, for paddlers and anglers.

LOCAL TIP

The Zumbro can rise fast after heavy rain — check the flood category next to the flow number, not just the flow itself.
